Happy New Year!

I hope you all enjoyed your holidays with your loved ones and friends and are looking forward to a great year of change (all good of course) for 2009! The Christmas Parade was the best yet and only continues to get better year after year. Thank all of you who participated. Pet Helpers was most appreciative of the food that was donated.

If anyone has any pictures they would like us to post on the website, please send them to me. I could also use them for our advertising for next year.

Our February meeting will be the last chance for new members to join the guild for the year. If you know anyone who would like to join, please bring them to the meeting.

Also, we don't have anyone set up to do a demo for the January meeting, so if anyone would like to demo their art/craft, please let me know.

UH OH - I have been informed by City Hall that anyone who wishes to sell their goods at events sponsored by the Art Guild must have a City of Folly Beach business license. Apparently this has been a requirement for some time, but has not been enforced.

I am sending each of you a copy of the form that will need to be submitted to Marlene Estridge at Folly Beach City Hall before the Tides of March. For Arts (sales $2,000.00 or less) the cost is $35.00. For Crafts (sales $2,000.00 or less) the cost is $30.00. If you have any questions regarding the license, you can call Marlene and she would be happy to help you out. She can be reached at City Hall 588.2447 ext.1.

Announcement - Islands Art Gallery will be hosting a fundraiser to benefit the American Cancer Society in memory of Karen Stringer in February. They will be renting wall space in 8'x8' or 4'x8' spaces for the event. If you are interested in participating in this event, please contact Andie Weathers at 588.1250 or andiew@earthlink.net. They are still working out the details on this event, but it will be good exposure for those of you looking for a new venue to show your work.

Happy New Year! I hope to see you all on Tuesday, January 6th! - Kerry
