Rain, rain go away!

And it did... The Festival of the arts started off on a rainy Friday but ended on a beautiful sunny Sunday. We had a smaller than usual showing for the contest due to the horrible weather on Friday. We had a good showing of people who visited the park and the community center both Saturday and Sunday. I would like to say thank you to all of the volunteers who helped out with this event and to Chris Weatherhead for the wonderful entertainment through out the weekend. Below is the list of winners from the competition. Congratulations and thank you for all who participated.
